

2026 Service Guide

Introduction:

EHS Documents Inc. and Respirator Mobile Fit have been providing industrial hygiene and safety consulting to the Denver area since 2004. EHS specializes in health and safety program development, air monitoring, noise monitoring, indoor air quality surveys, training and general safety consulting. Respirator Mobile Fit, a subsidiary of EHS Documents Inc., specializes in respirator related services.

Key Personnel:

Holli Merchant, CIH, CSP
Principal Industrial Hygienist

John Merchant, MBA
Project Manager

Heather Taylor
Technician

Contact Information

Office: 303-986-0600

E-mail: jmerchant@ehsdocuments.com

Website: <http://www.ehsdocuments.com>

Services:

Safety Program Development

- Corporate Safety Programs
- Site Specific Health and Safety Plans
- Individual Policies and Procedures
- Emergency Action Plans
- Safety Meetings
- Program review/Gap analysis

Air Monitoring

- Heavy metals
- Silica
- Volatile organics
- Dust
- Hydrogen sulfide
- Welding fumes

Noise Monitoring

- Sound level surveys
- Noise dosimetry
- Development of Hearing Conservation Programs
- Noise maps

Training

- Development of training materials
 - Power Point presentations to fit regulatory standards as well as for industry and company specific needs.

General Consulting

- Safety newsletter development
- Chemical inventory & procurement of SDS
- Submission of Hazardous Material Inventory to fire departments

Respirator Services through Respirator Mobile Fit

- Mobile respirator fit testing
- Respiratory program document development
- Respirator program administrator training